

THOMAS L. LEE

Administrative Experience

- Thomas L. Lee is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of The Newhall Land and Farming Company. Newhall Land owns more than 50,000 acres in California and develops new towns and master planned communities. Its primary activity is the new town of Valencia located 30 miles north of downtown Los Angeles. The company is traded on the New York and Pacific Stock Exchanges.
- Lee joined Newhall Land in 1970 and has held various positions in the company's residential, commercial and industrial real estate operations. He was named President and Chief Operating Officer in 1985, CEO in 1987 and Chairman in 1989.

Selected Activities

- Serves as a director of Blue Shield of California
- Member of the California Business Roundtable and the Urban Land Institute
- Serves as a director of the Real Estate Roundtable
- Serves as a national trustee of Boys and Girls Clubs of America
- Trustee of California Institute of the Arts
- Served as an officer on active duty in the U.S. Naval Reserve from 1964-68

Education

- Graduated from Denison University with a degree in Economics in 1964
- Masters in Business Administration from Stanford University in 1970